The committee chair must be a full-time doctoral faculty member. Committee members may be full or part-time doctoral faculty members or other School of Education and Human Performance faculty/staff members with a doctoral degree. University faculty members from other disciplines are also eligible to serve. A committee member may also be a qualified individual (with a doctorate) outside of the Aurora University faculty. In such case, the outside committee member must be approved by the chair and the resume of the outside committee member must accompany the signature.

This completed original form with signatures must be filed with the program secretary with copies to your program advisor and committee chair.
