

Aurora University
Office of Student Activities
Student Organization Advisor of the Year

This award was developed to honor those advisors who contribute their time, energy and dedication to student organizations at Aurora University. Without the support and knowledge of these individuals, the accomplishments and advancements of your group, chapter or society would not be possible. This award will be presented at the Student Leadership Recognition Reception on April 21, 2008.

Nominee: _____

Nominator: _____

Organization: _____

Organization: _____

Length of time involved: _____

Length of time involved: _____

Year in school: _____

In order to nominate your advisor, please fill out the top part of this sheet and attach it to your nomination letter. Please describe, in 1-2 pages, why your organization's advisor is worthy of this award. Use the questions below to guide you in writing your letter:

1. In what capacity does your advisor aid your organization?
2. What qualities do you feel that your advisor possesses, that sets him/her apart from others? Why?
3. Give examples of specific actions that your advisor has taken which go beyond the call of duty.
4. What are the greatest contributions that your advisor has offered?
5. Has your advisor extended his/her duties outside of the organization to help those on a personal level? What have they done?
6. How does your advisor exemplify the values of your organization?

Please include any additional comments or qualities of your organizational advisor.

Deadline for Application:
Monday, March 31, 5pm
Office of Student Activities