CONTINUING EDUCATION EVENT

Finding Words To Heal: Processing the Effects of the Coronavirus

Dr. Marissa Happ, DSW, LCSW, C-SWHC/G, PEL

Therapeutic writing has been helping persons heal for over thirty years. Dr. James Pennebaker, a pioneer in this field, has researched the link between language and trauma recovery and has been recognized by the American Psychological Association as one of the top researchers on trauma, disclosure and health.

Covid has lost much of its imminent danger, but many report residual effects of the pandemic. This writing workshop will allow us to process our experiences, find restored energy and better understand the students, interns and coworkers we serve.

Friday, November 15, 2024

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Held virtually on Zoom

Attendees earn 3 CEUs
