Matilda the Musical Character Breakdown:

Matilda Wormwood: A bright, imaginative young girl with a love of books and a strong sense of justice. Quietly determined and courageous, she stands up for herself and others.

Miss Agatha Trunchbull: The intimidating headmistress of Crunchem Hall and a former champion hammer thrower. A larger-than-life role with commanding presence, strong physical comedy, and an intense dislike of children.

Miss Jennifer Honey: Matilda's kind, gentle teacher who recognizes her extraordinary potential. Beneath her shy exterior, she finds the courage to stand up for herself and her students.

Mr. Wormwood: Matilda's dishonest, loud, and self-important father who sells used cars. A highly comic role requiring confidence, energy, and bold character choices.

Mrs. Wormwood: Matilda's flashy, self-absorbed mother who loves ballroom dancing. Outspoken and dramatic, she values appearances over education.

Michael Wormwood: Matilda's older brother. Uninterested and often unresponsive, he creates comedy through minimal dialogue, timing, and physical reactions.

Mrs. or Mr. Phelps: A warm, enthusiastic librarian who encourages Matilda's love of stories. She/he becomes deeply invested in the tale Matilda shares with her/him.

Rudolpho: Mrs. Wormwood's flamboyant ballroom dance partner. A confident, theatrical role with strong dance skills and comic flair.

Bruce Bogtrotter: A classmate of Matilda's who faces Trunchbull's infamous chocolate-cake punishment. A spirited role with opportunities for comedy and powerful singing.

Lavender: Matilda's enthusiastic friend and classmate. Curious, playful, and eager to share her part in the story with the audience.

Amanda Thripp: A student whose pigtails attract Trunchbull's attention. A featured role requiring expressive reactions and a willingness to participate in physical storytelling.

Nigel: An anxious, energetic student who is easily frightened by Trunchbull. A featured role with strong comic opportunities.

Eric: A younger student navigating life at Crunchem Hall. A featured role within the children's ensemble.

Alice: One of Matilda's classmates, featured in the classroom scenes and ensemble musical numbers.

Hortensia: An experienced student who warns the others about Trunchbull and the dangers of Crunchem Hall. Confident, direct, and familiar with the school's harsh rules.

Tommy: One of Matilda's classmates, featured in the classroom scenes and ensemble musical numbers.

The Escapologist: A brave, devoted father in the story Matilda tells Mrs. Phelps. Requires warmth, a strong stage presence, and emotional depth.

The Acrobat: A talented circus performer and loving mother in Matilda's story. Requires expressive storytelling, warmth, and grace.
