AU Men's Golf

Meet the Head Coach

JOHN DONOFRIO
Head Golf Coach
Sixth Season

John Donofrio started as the Varsity Men's Golf Coach at Aurora University in the fall of 2002.

Under Coach Donofrio's leadership, the golf program has shown strong prospects with returning golfers and strong recruits. The AU golf program consists of a competitive and full traditional fall and spring schedule, including a spring break competitive trip. The AU golf team is a member of the Northern Athletics Conference (NAC) of NCAA Division III.

Prior to joining AU, Donofrio was with Dominican University, where he started both the men's and women's golf programs, competing in NAIA and NCAA Division III. He has been involved with the game of golf for the past 25 years, since his introduction as a caddie at Calumet Country Club. He competes in amateur golf tournaments in the Chicago District Golf Association, and he is a member of the Chicago Golf Coaches Association and WGA Par Club.

Donofrio earned a bachelor's degree from the University of St. Francis and a Master's in Business Administration from Benedictine University. He worked in management positions in the insurance industry for the past 20 years. He also taught in the business departments at the University of St. Francis and Joliet Junior College as an adjunct instructor for economics, business policy and service management.

2007 Men's Golf Review

The Aurora University Men's Golf team finished its 2006-2007 season on a high note, winning two tournaments and placing second in two more. The fall season consisted of a traditional schedule and conference tournament, while the spring season allowed for more out-of-conference play. Heading into the season, the Spartans knew that they would be relying on mostly underclassmen, but they did not know how the young athletes would respond.

During the fall's Northern Athletics Conference (NAC) play, AU placed two underclassmen on the All-NAC team. Gaining All-Conference honors were sophomore Mark Frantzen (Aurora, IL/Aurora Central Catholic) and freshman Shane Roland (Knightstown, IN/Knightstown). Frantzen and Roland both proved that they could consistently compete at a high level of collegiate play.

The spring season marked another successful campaign for the Spartans. Beginning with the Benedictine University Invitational, held at Seven Bridges Golf Course in Woodridge, IL. AU placed first or second in four consecutive events. This stretch included first place finishes at the Benedictine University and Rockford College Invitationals and a second place showing at the Spartan's own Aurora University Invitational, held at Blackberry Oaks Country Club. Overall, the 2006-2007 season witnessed Aurora University's Men's Golf Team go from inexperienced group to seasoned college team.

The Spartans were led all season by senior captain and team MVP Cole Guetschow (Carpentersville, IL/Dundee-Crown), who finished fourth at the conference championships at no. 5 singles. # This Is Aurora University

Eckhart Hall

Aurora University traces its origins to the 1893 founding of a seminary in the small town of Mendota, IL. Though established initially to prepare graduates for ministry, the institution soon adopted a broader mission and moved to a new campus on the western edge of the nearby community of Aurora. With this change came a different name and a growing enrollment. In 1985, the institution was rechristened Aurora University.

In 1992, the Aurora and George Williams College traditions blended when the two institutions entered into the affiliation agreement that paved the way for a merger eight years later.

Today Aurora University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association to award degrees at the baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral levels. The institution enrolls approximately 4,000 degree-seeking students a year on its Illinois and Wisconsin campuses.

The Aurora campus offers undergraduate and graduate programs through the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Education and the College of Professional Studies (including the Dunham School of Business, School of Nursing, School of Social Work and School of Health and Physical Education.) The graduate programs offer areas of specialization, leading to master's degrees in business administration, mathematics, recreation administration, teaching and social work, as well as a doctorate in education.

At AU, academic programs are enhanced through learning opportunities. The Dunham Scholars Program incorporates service learning and extracurricular activities into its business curriculum. The Honors Program offers students advanced coursework, innovative seminars and participation in special events. May Term is a three-week program offering opportunities to study abroad, research a science topic on campus or travel to Chicago to explore the city's culture.

AU offers its undergraduates a wide range of on- and off-campus learning experiences. Students participate in more than 60 musical, literary, religious, social and service organizations and play active roles in campus governance. The university also fields 18 NCAA Division III intercollegiate athletic teams. The Spartans boast a winning tradition with 49 conference titles in recent years and 27 regular appearances in national tournaments.

The Alumni Hall of Physical Education features a racquetball court, climbing wall, complete locker room facilities, training room, weight room, aerobic-activities room, classroom and coaches' offices.

Aurora University is located in west Aurora, within an hour's drive of Chicago and at the western end of the Illinois Research and Development Corridor. It is accessible via Interstate 88 at the Orchard Road exit.
