EVENTS

Mark your calendar for these “don’t miss” events. All of these events are free. For more information or to RSVP contact the Crouse Center at 630-844-6870.

Wednesday, October 27 • 5:00–6:00 p.m.
“Say What?: Graduate Interviewing”

Presented by Brenda Barnwell, Assistant Professor of Social Work
Applicable to all majors.

University Banquet Hall • Pizza provided • RSVP required

Thursday, October 21 12:00 p.m. (noon)
Bringing Wall Street to Aurora

This is an informative session where first-year students and sophomores will have the opportunity to meet a representative from the national minority career development organization INROADS and learn about paid internships in some of the largest companies in the nation.

Sponsored by LASO, BSA and the Crouse Center for Student Success
University Banquet Hall North • Pizza provided
Business Casual Dress recommended

PART-TIME JOB OPENINGS

Looking for an occasional baby sitter for my two school age children after school. If interested contact Tracy at Tdoyle0806@yahoo.com (100810)

In need of a sitter to watch my 3rd grade daughter after school on Tues., Wed. & Fri.’s from 2:10 until my husband or I get home. Usually we are home by 4 but sometimes it can be 5/5:30. She attends Freeman Elementary and we live a block away on Calumet Ave, which is convenient for students without vehicles. Requirements: child care experience. Please contact me at H: 630-892-7551 or C: 630-234-4315. We would like to fill this position as soon as possible. (100110)

Batavia resident looking for a babysitter for 5 year old daughter Monday, Wednesday, and Friday 5:45a.m. until drop off at Holy Cross Catholic School @ 8:30am, pickup only Wednesday and Friday at 11:30am from Holy Cross and baby sit at my home until 5-6pm. If interested call Home: 630-482-9344, Cell: 630-715-1080 or Work 312-676-1000 (100110)
INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The deadline for a spring semester internship is December 15th. Information along with the applications is available on-line at http://www.aurora.edu/academics/resources/crouse-center/internships/student-internship-information.html

Bill Foster for Congress is now accepting applicants for the Foster Organizing Internship! Foster Organizing Interns will undergo comprehensive community organizing training and will apply the fundamental principles of grassroots organizing to their work on behalf of Bill Foster for Congress. Interns will gain valuable campaign experience working directly with staff and volunteers. Interns will also be an essential part of an aggressive field program in a frontline race that has garnered a great deal of national attention. This is an outstanding opportunity for anyone looking to work as field staff on a campaign in the future. Interns will be trained in the following: - Volunteer Recruitment - Door to Door Canvassing - Phone Banking - Voter Activation Network - Community Outreach - Event planning Candidates should be organized, competent, outgoing individuals who are eager to learn and are willing to work hard. Candidates should have a strong academic record as well as excellent communication skills. Strong candidates must work well independently and as part of a team. The internship is unpaid. Applicants should submit cover letter and resume to traci.johnson@ILVictory2010.org

Have the Best Job in America!' by Paul Keegan and Anne C. Lee
Thursday, October 14, 2010

Meet people lucky enough to have the top careers on Money and PayScale.com’s list, and see why they love their jobs.

Dan Cervelli, 35, Palo Alto, Calif.
The job: Software Architect
Best Jobs rank: 1
Works at: Palantir Technologies
Why he loves his job: “I put together apps people actually use. So for me, the greatest joy comes from seeing people use the product in a way that makes their life better or makes it easier for them to do their job.”

Beth Grivett, 43, Newport Beach, Calif.
The job: Physician Assistant
Best Jobs rank: 2
Works at: Newport Family Medicine
Why she loves her job: “You get satisfaction from seeing patients and getting the feedback every day that you’re helping people. We’ve partnered with doctors for long enough that they really think of us as colleagues, and I enjoy that partnership. It’s an exciting time.”

Max Dufour, 33, Boston
The job: Management Consultant
Best Jobs rank: 3
Works at: SunGard, principal in consulting services
Why he loves his job: "What I love most is the freedom and the entrepreneurial aspect. I create solutions, meet with clients, and define what we're selling. I interact with very senior people CTOs, CIOs, and chief compliance officers. It's a very interesting part of the job."

Alison Lichy, 34, Alexandria, Va.
The job: Physical Therapist
Best Jobs rank: 4
Works at: Neurological Physical Therapy
Why she loves her job: "It's rewarding because I work closely with patients during their recovery, and I get the satisfaction of seeing them return to an active lifestyle. It's also great that you can work in different settings and specialties -- neurological or orthopedic, outpatient or inpatient -- and the hours can be flexible."

The job: Environmental Engineer
Best Jobs rank: 5
Works at: General Motors
Why he loves his job: "I'm working with Boy Scouts to take the battery cover from the Chevy Volt and turn it into a nest box for waterfowl that nest in trees. That's why I like this job. It allows me to work with people and improve their lives, leaving the world a better place."

Tajudeen Bakare, 52, Columbus, Ohio
The job: Civil Engineer
Best Jobs rank: 6
Works at: CT Consultants, designing major bridge and highway improvements
Why he loves his job: "Every day is different. Someone has a new idea or wants to build something totally different. That's what engineering is all about. You prove that something that seems impossible is possible. It's a profession that changes with the world"

For a complete list of people who say they have the best job visit: