AURORA UNIVERSITY

2027–2028 Appeal for All Aid

STUDENT INFORMATION

Student Name _____ AU Student ID _____

Daytime Phone _____ Degree ☐ Undergraduate ☐ Graduate

Aurora University is required to monitor whether or not students are maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in their course of study to comply with federal regulations for financial aid. To be considered for financial aid probation instead of suspension, students who are not eligible for any federal, state, or institutional financial aid must submit this form, a written statement, and supporting documentation (if applicable). Completion of this process does not guarantee that financial aid will be reinstated. Please note that academic or admission reinstatement does not constitute reinstatement of financial aid eligibility. If you have an outstanding balance, your appeal will be reviewed once your account is paid in full.

SECTION 1: GENERAL APPEAL INFORMATION

I choose to appeal the suspension of my financial aid for the selected semester(s):

☐ Summer 2027
Submission Date: May 11, 2027

☐ Fall 2027
Submission Date: August 31, 2027

☐ Spring 2028
Submission Date: January 11, 2028

SECTION 2: APPEAL REASON

Indicate below which situation applies to your academic difficulty.

☐ Medical issue (self)
☐ Family difficulties, such as divorce or illness
☐ Death of family member
☐ Life-altering event, such as fire, tornado, accident, job loss, etc.

☐ Other: _____

_____

SECTION 3: APPEAL STATEMENT

Provide a statement explaining the circumstances that contributed to your academic difficulty as well as how you will perform better academically in the future. Be sure to include as much detail in your statement as possible. This information will remain confidential. As a guideline, include the following information:

1. The circumstance affecting your academics.
2. When the circumstance occurred in relation to your academic difficulty.
3. The duration of the circumstance.
4. How the circumstance affected your ability to complete your coursework.
5. What has changed in your situation to allow you to be academically successful.
6. Specific steps you will take to assure the university of your future academic success.

SECTION 4: APPEAL DOCUMENTATION

Submitting documentation with this form and your statement can strengthen your appeal. Students are highly encouraged to provide documentation. See below for suggested documentation options given your appeal reason.

APPEAL REASON	SUGGESTED DOCUMENTATION
Medical issue (self)	Documentation from medical professional verifying medical problems experienced and treatment received
Family difficulties, such as divorce or illness	Court documents showing divorce or documentation from medical professional verifying medical problems experienced and treatment received
Death of family member	Death certificate and/or obituary
Life-altering event, such as fire, tornado, accident, job loss, etc.	Evidence of event, such as an insurance claim, FEMA application, police report, termination notification, etc.
Other	Appropriate documentation to verify situation
